Aquea Cream

Water constitutes 15% of the skin's epidermis. A deficiency in oil and moisture in the skin causes the skin to lose its natural moisture-retaining ability, causing the skin to be dehydrated, flaky, scaly or even cracked.

What causes dry skin?

- Excessive bathing or swimming (especially in strongly chlorinated water)
- Staying long hours in an air-conditioned environment
- Frequent contact with soaps, harsh detergents and solvents
- Over-exposure to the sun
- Ageing skin
- Temperate/arid climates

Aquea effectively combats dry skin

Aquea is formulated with unique moisturising properties that provide intense hydration for dry skin. It contains 10% urea which is clinically proven to lock in moisture and prevent water loss from the epidermis.

Aquea provides lasting relief from eczematous dry, scaling conditions especially in the elderly and alleviates infantile eczema. It is suitable for all ages and it works particularly well on problematic dry areas such as the elbows, knees and heels.

Aquea is suitable for all parts of the body, including the face. Constant use will keep the skin smooth and healthy. Its efficacy is recognised by many medical practitioners from Singapore's public healthcare institutions.
